The following questions are not a test that you should be concerned about passing or failing, the questions are simply a method of assessing your knowledge of the licensing law and highlighting areas where we can offer guidance to improve your knowledge. If there are areas you are unsure of you should answer honestly.

Q1: What is the minimum age that a person must be for you to sell or supply alcohol to them?

Q2: What should you do if someone looks or acts under age 25 and asks for alcohol?

Q3: Would you serve a parent with an alcoholic drink for their child?

Q4: What should you do if you have to refuse to sell or supply alcohol to someone?

Q5: How many small glasses of wine are deemed safe for consumption by a woman per day?

Q6: Where is the refusals book kept and what is it for?

Q7: Name two forms of identification that are acceptable as proof of age?

Q8: What would you do if you think that someone is using someone else's I.D or buying for other people who are under age?

Q9: What might happen to you if you sell or supply alcohol to an under-age person?

Q10: Who is responsible for complying with these conditions when hiring Hale Village Hall under the terms of the hall's premises licence?
